BEFORE YOU BEGIN

You already own the raw material.

Every trip you have taken holds a handful of moments, a few people, and some details that only you noticed. This worksheet helps you find them, check them, and shape them into a month of posts that sound like you.

Pick one trip. Write quickly. You can polish later.

STEP 1

Choose your trip

DESTINATION

WHEN YOU WENT

---

WHO WAS WITH YOU

---

WHY THIS TRIP STILL MATTERS TO YOU

---

STEP 2

The moment

Describe one moment you still think about. Start with what you could see, hear, smell, or taste.

---

---

---

---

WHERE WERE YOU STANDING?

---

STEP 3

The person

Who made this trip what it was? A driver, a host, a chef, a guide, a neighbor.

THEIR NAME (USE IT ONLY WITH THEIR PERMISSION)

WHAT THEY TAUGHT YOU

---

HOW GUESTS CAN SUPPORT THEM AND THEIR COMMUNITY (ASK THEM)

---

STEP 4

What it means for a client

THE TRAVELER I WOULD SEND HERE

WHAT THEY WILL REMEMBER

---

ONE QUESTION A CLIENT ASKS BEFORE BOOKING, AND MY HONEST ANSWER

---

STEP 5

Facts you stand behind

Only use what you can stand behind. If you are unsure, check it before you post.

| FACT | HOW I KNOW IT                            |
|      | I saw it / they told me / I confirmed it |
|      | I saw it / they told me / I confirmed it |
|      | I saw it / they told me / I confirmed it |

STEP 6

The voice check

- ☐ Would I say this out loud at a dinner table?
  - ☐ Does it sound like me on a good day?
  - ☐ Could someone who has never been here picture it?

Four weeks, one story.

Write the first line you would post for each week. Everything else follows from it.

| WEEK | FOCUS AND FORMATS                                                                                                      | MY FIRST LINE |
| 1    | The moment.A short video, a photo with a story caption, or a story sequence.                                |               |
| 2    | The person.A portrait with a caption naming their gift (with permission), or a short clip of them speaking. |               |
| 3    | What to know before you go.A carousel or post that answers the questions your clients ask.                  |               |
| 4    | The invitation.Your story in one paragraph, with an invitation to talk about a trip.                        |               |

Four checks before you post

- ☐ Permission. Names, faces, and photos of other people.
- ☐ Accuracy. Every fact traces back to Step 5.
- ☐ Gratitude. Credit the people and places that made it possible.
- ☐ One invitation. A single, clear next step for the reader.
