IS IT A FIT?

See honestly.

Selection is intentionally narrow. The application reads for purpose, for the advisor you intend to become.

- You are a travel advisor or agency owner with real intent to build authority in your own voice.
- You are willing to do creative work in destination: capture, edit, post, refine.
- You believe relationships with local people make a better client experience.
- You can say why you want this education and how you will apply it.
- You arrive with humility and curiosity.

How to apply

Fifty travel advisors are selected by application. Tell us who you serve and what you are building, and we respond personally to every application. The investment is disclosed upon acceptance.
